

Ghusl for touching a dead body

Issue No.1- If a person touches a human dead body which has become cold and has not yet been given Ghusl (i.e. brings any part of his own body in contact with it) he should do Ghusl.

Issue No.2- If a person touches a dead fetus which was 4 months old or more, then Ghusl for touching it will be obligatory.

Issue No.3- In case of still-born child (dead fetus which was 4 months old or more), the mother should do Ghusl for touching the dead body.

Issue No.4- It is not obligatory to do Ghusl for touching the clothes of a human dead body.

Issue No.5- The method of doing Ghusl for touching the dead body is the same as of Ghusl for Janabat, with Neyyat for touching the dead body.

Issue No.6- One Ghusl is sufficient for one who touched several corpses or touched the same corpse a number of times.
